SWEDISH CERAMICS
by Anna Elzer Oscarson

Attraction and lust are the watchwords for AEO, a new brand founded by Anna Elzer Oscarson who was educated at HDK in Gothenburg, Sweden. The first collection, Dusty Diamonds, consists of hand made, finely detailed, tactile, stoneware objects. Created in a factory in Lidköping, it is the result of a close collaboration between designer and craftsmen. Anna's work has scooped a plethora of awards to date and a strong following of admirers.
